ITINERARY & DETAILS

This document aims to give you all the information that you require for a smooth and comfortable trip to Iceland. Please take the time to read this dossier to familiarise yourself with all the aspects of our tour. It includes important details such as visa requirements.

Your included meal guide:

B = Breakfast, L = Lunch, D = Dinner

DAY 1: UK to Budva D

Depart London on a scheduled flight to Dubrovnik. Be met on arrival and transfer to the beautiful resort of Budva in Montenegro, your hotel base for two nights.

DAY 2: Budva – Kotor – Budva B

This morning set off on a short trip to Kotor, stopping en route at the beautiful little town of Perast, described as "a piece of Venice that has floated down the Adriatic". See its most famous landmark, a man-made islet with a chapel known as 'Our Lady of the Rocks', built by sailors who believed they had encountered a miracle at this spot. Continue on to a tour of Kotor Old Town, an atmospheric delight set between the bay and the mountains. This UNESCO World Heritage Site is characterised by soaring defensive walls, ancient café-filled squares, palaces, churches and museums. Most impressive of all is the Cathedral of St. Tryphon, originating from the 12th century and evolving over time after numerous earthquakes. Marvel at the magnificent Renaissance and Romanesque architecture, with vaulted roofs supported by columns and pillars of pink stone. Don't miss its most valuable treasure, the gilded bas-relief altar screen. Built in honour of the city's patron Saint Tryphon, this is one of only two Roman Catholic Cathedrals in Montenegro.

DAY 3: Budva to Dubrovnik B

After breakfast transfer back to Dubrovnik, Croatia's picture-perfect medieval city which has featured as a backdrop to many a Hollywood production. Today's guided walk around the walled old town, is a cultural and visual feast and takes in the many highlights of the city. Stroll along Stradun, the limestone-paved main pedestrian thoroughfare, which buzzes with bars, cafes and street performers before passing the 14th century Franciscan Monastery at Stradun's west end, which has a beautiful garden and Europe's oldest working pharmacy. Afterwards, proceed to nearby Onofrio's Fountain, built in 1438 to bring water into town via an aqueduct seven miles away. Observe Orlando's Column, carved in the form of the ancient Knight Orlando, and admire the stunning Baroque Church of St Blaise, patron saint of Dubrovnik who saved the city from attack by Venetians. This afternoon enjoy time to explore this awe-inspiring city at your leisure before checking into the hotel for the first of two nights.

DAY 4: Dubrovnik B

Today is yours to discover more of Dubrovnik's attractions at your own pace. You might choose to walk the iconic 2km circuit atop the city wall, which offers ever changing vistas across the terracotta rooftops of the city and the shimmering Adriatic. A different and more leisurely way of getting equally spectacular views is to take a ride in the cable car, opened in 2010. Alternatively, wander through the Old Town and enjoy its many attractions - historic churches and buildings, medieval sculptures, modern galleries, designer shops, cosy cafes, bars and restaurants - it's all here. On the other hand, there are numerous beaches offering a more laid-back option and a chance to relax.

DAY 5: Dubrovnik – Mostar – Split B

Today, depart Dubrovnik after breakfast and travel towards Mostar in Bosnia and Herzegovina. Acting as the country's central economic and cultural capital, Mostar is an enchanting and fairy-tale like city which boasts a number of picturesque restaurants and markets. View the country's most recognisable landmark, the Stari Most (Old Bridge), an amazing example of Islamic architecture. The restored bridge again connects numerous sights and attractions on both sides of the city, including the mosque, an old style Turkish house and the old bazaar. Ramble over the cobbled streets of the bazaar and immerse yourself in Mostar's local craft shops and traditional restaurants. Journey onwards to Split, Croatia's 2nd largest city and transfer to tonight's hotel.

DAY 6: Split B

After breakfast, explore the vibrant Croatian city of Split. Occupying a dramatic coastal position, Split is a city in which the architecture and surroundings fluctuate between traditional and modern. Tour the grand Diocletian Palace, built as a luxury villa, summer house and military camp for Roman emperor Diocletian in the fourth century and wonder at the palace's majestic Peristyle and golden gate. Afterwards wander down the waterside promenade lined with lively restaurants, shops and cafes, which contrast with Split's medieval centre.

DAY 7: Split – Krka National Park – Split B/D

Depart Split after breakfast at the hotel and travel to Krka National Park and the Skradinski Buk Waterfalls. Located near Šibenik, these 17 stunning falls along the Krka river are one of the best-known natural beauties of Croatia. Get the best seat in the house by embarking on a boat ride across the river, unquestionably the ultimate way to soak in the sights and sounds of the park. Depart Krka National Park and stop off en route to relax in the historical town of Šibenik, idyllically located on the banks of the river Krka. Overlook the calming blue waters before returning to Split for a dinner at your hotel.

DAY 8: Split to UK or Extension B

This morning, leave the hotel and transfer to Split Airport for your return flight to the UK or onto your chosen extension.
